Opened in 1801, the canal is still active today as it links Ardrishaig on Loch Fyne with Crinan on the Atlantic coast. During this stop we should see boating activity in the lock, and there will be time for a leisurely stroll along the canal. Later, we continue north along the eastern shores of Loch Fyne to Inveraray, and our destination, the Loch Fyne Hotel.

We are free to explore Inveraray, traditional county town of Argyll, and ancestral home of the Dukes of Argyll, one of whom founded the town in 1745, alongside his new dwelling, Inveraray Castle. Much of the town, including the church, was designed and built by Robert Mylne, the Edinburgh-born architect, between 1772 and 1800.

You will find the Woolen Shop, and two Whisky Shops, among many interesting aspects of Inveraray. One of the popular attractions is the Old Inveraray Jail, available to us for a self-guided tour.

A good physical activity would be to hike up to Dùn na Cuaiche for the view over the town, and down the reaches of Loch Fyne.

(Independent Lunch, wherever you are)

Evening Hotel

After Dinner, Free time
Loch Fyne Hotel & Spa, Inveraray, Argyll & Bute (D. B.)

Day 7 Thursday, 16th June, 2022

Activity

An Inveraray Castle has been standing on the shores of Loch Fyne since the 1400s, although the impressive castle we know today was inspired by a sketch by Vanbrugh, the architect of Blenheim Palace and Castle Howard in the 1700s.

Afternoon visit to Auchindrain Township. “Long ago, Scotland had thousands of “townships”, small farming communities where groups of families worked together. Then, two hundred and fifty years ago, the world began to change. The townships were replaced by modern farms, crofting, and large estates”.

The visit will include an introductory welcome, refreshments, and self-guided time around the old houses, barns, and implements.

(Independent Lunch in Inveraray)

The population is just over 8,000, which can be tripled during the summer months. Today we will organize a visit to Oban Distillery. Also, a brief stop at St. Conan's Church, in the village of Loch Awe is well worth a brief stop.

(Independent Lunch in Oban, or wherever you are)
